ENG 0500-002/CRN: 13596
2 credits

Fall 2010
September 7 – December 15, 2010

English Language Institute
Wayne State University

Through reading and writing of complex texts, advanced English-as-a-Second Language students will work on improving academic organizational style by writing a variety of essays. In addition, students will expand their understanding of using academic English grammar and punctuation. Students will use self and peer evaluation of essays to identify and work on their weaknesses.

Prerequisite: TOEFL ® minimum 550, TWE 4.0, placement by ELI, or permission from the instructor.

Students will receive instruction in:

- Improving academic, technical and business writing skills
- Improving English grammar in many contexts
- Generating a variety of essays
- Developing editing skills
- Learning the steps to essay writing
