

ENGLISH COURSES

for non-native
speakers

Customized for your business needs

Taught at your site

Improve your team's communication skills and confidence through intensive English language courses created specifically for your needs. Participants build speaking expertise that prepares them for professional and social interaction with clients and colleagues while becoming better listeners and mastering non-verbal cues that contribute to success. Employees will advance faster and bring value to your workplace with refined pronunciation and fluency.

- English language learners at all levels will improve
- Skills can be applied to practical situations such as ordering coffee or a restaurant meal
- Sessions at your site on your schedule save time and money
